Meditate on This: “Implicit in the act of baptism is the fact that once a person belongs to the people of God, no escape is possible from the call to sainthood. To be a Christian is to be a saint.” --- from the sermon

*THE CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Leader: God calls us to this place at this hour.

People: God sees more in us than we see in ourselves.

Leader: We cannot be absent from God’s presence or apart from his redemptive judgment.

People: God calls us out as saints to live life today and to trust the future.

Unison: We sing praise to God for loving us, saving us, and calling us to follow Jesus.

An Affirmation of love and support (unison)

How long you have worked and prepared for this time in your life! But remember it is not only by your own doing that you have accomplished this important goal. You have received the support and encouragement of family, teachers, friends – and most importantly, the grace and love of God.

For this we give thanks and assure you of our continued love and support as you enter a future fresh with potential and promise. May God bless you with faith and love that you may live as if the new has already come. In joy we celebrate this day with you.
