WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

Think on This: “Feet washing reminds us that Christ calls for a faith that must be concrete, practical, and relevant.”

--- from the sermon

*INVOCATION PRAYER (unison)

O God, be with us as we come to worship. We need to recognize your presence for the forgiveness of our sins and the new hope that your presence instills.

We pray that our life together might reflect your love and that we might be servants one to another, and all others, as Jesus is to us. We pledge to seek to be the body of Christ – a people of the world, but not of the world. AMEN,

*HYMN

“Love Divine, All Loves Excelling”

#92

NEXT STEPS FOR MOSCOW - On Thursday, August 26 at 6:00 pm we will have a meeting with Joan Daggett, Associate District Executive of the Shenandoah District. We will begin with a light supper (provided by the Executive Committee), followed by a conversation with Joan Daggett on different options and ways to move forward. This will be a time for all of us to listen about what other churches have done, what new churches do, and how different options could work for the Moscow congregation. Please come and listen, ask questions, and discuss the possibilities! Joan specializes in church re-organizations and new church start-ups and will be able to guide us in the steps to both consider what path God is directing us take and then how to get there!

VALLEY MISSION NEWS – On August 31st, the Women’s Fellowship and the Witness Commission will serve the evening meal to the residents of Valley Missions. After the meal everyone will enjoy a birthday party in honor of those residents having an August birthday. The birthday people will be given a card and a small gift and enjoy cake and ice cream with everyone. A very urgent need of all residents (especially men) is flip flops for shower wear. Let’s see how many pair we can delivery to them on August 31. See Carol for additional information and questions.
